Members of the armed forces below the rank of major who served during the Korean War and who were subsequently discharged or released under honorable conditions are probably eligible for the pay, she said.

In commenting on his resignation as field deputy, Supervisor Chace stated, "Mr. Newton will be hard to replace. ... Council disputed two feet of unusable pavement.

A SCHEDULED hearing into proposals to lease the 9-acre corner of the airport at the northeast corner of Crenshaw Blvd. and Pacific Coast Hwy. was delayed for three weeks while backers of at least two of the proposals were asked to submit information about their financial ability to develop the property.

Mayor Albert Isen said yesterday he still believes the city should develop the property itself, signing individual leases for stores and shops.

IN ANOTHER action by the council, a 15-man committee was authorized to plan development of the 50-acre civic center.

Each councilman would appoint two men to the committee and the 14 thus appointed would select a 15th to be the chairman, under the terms of a proposal made by Councilman Jay Beasley.

City Attorney Stanley Remel-meyer was instructed to draw up a resolution forming such a committee.
